Bob Maxwell named Co-player of the year

Football Awards: 1st team all-northeastern Ohio athletic conference Bob Maxwell, Tom Buck, Paul Shullo. 2nd team all NEOAC: Jon Takacs, John Moreland, Jeff Stebbins. 1st team all-Ohio associated press; Bob Maxwell. 2nd team all-NEO associated press: Paul Shullo. 1st team all summit county: Bob Maxwell, Tom Buck, Jon Takacs. 1st team all district: Bob Maxwell, Tom Buck. 2nd team all state quarterback, United Press international news service: Bob Maxwell.

This season, the Black Tigers became the first in the NEO conference to gain as many as 1,197 yards in one season by passing — 677 of these were against league opponents, also a league record.

Offensive captain, Bob Maxwell earned five new records: most yards gained in one season — 1,038; most yards gained passing for career — 2,397; most career touchdowns — 27; most attempts and completions in one season — 70 of 137; most career attempts and completions — 166 of 310 (53%) in three seasons. Maxwell was named player of the year at the end of the 1974 football season.

Another senior, Tom Buck, earned a place in the NEO record book for career pass receiving marks of 13 touchdowns and 1,263 yds. gained. He finished second among the league's top receivers for 373 yds. in 22 catches.

Tailback Gary Hoover and splitend Dave Conner finished fifth and sixth in the league respectively. Hoover caught 21 for 263 yds. and Conner, 17 for 249.

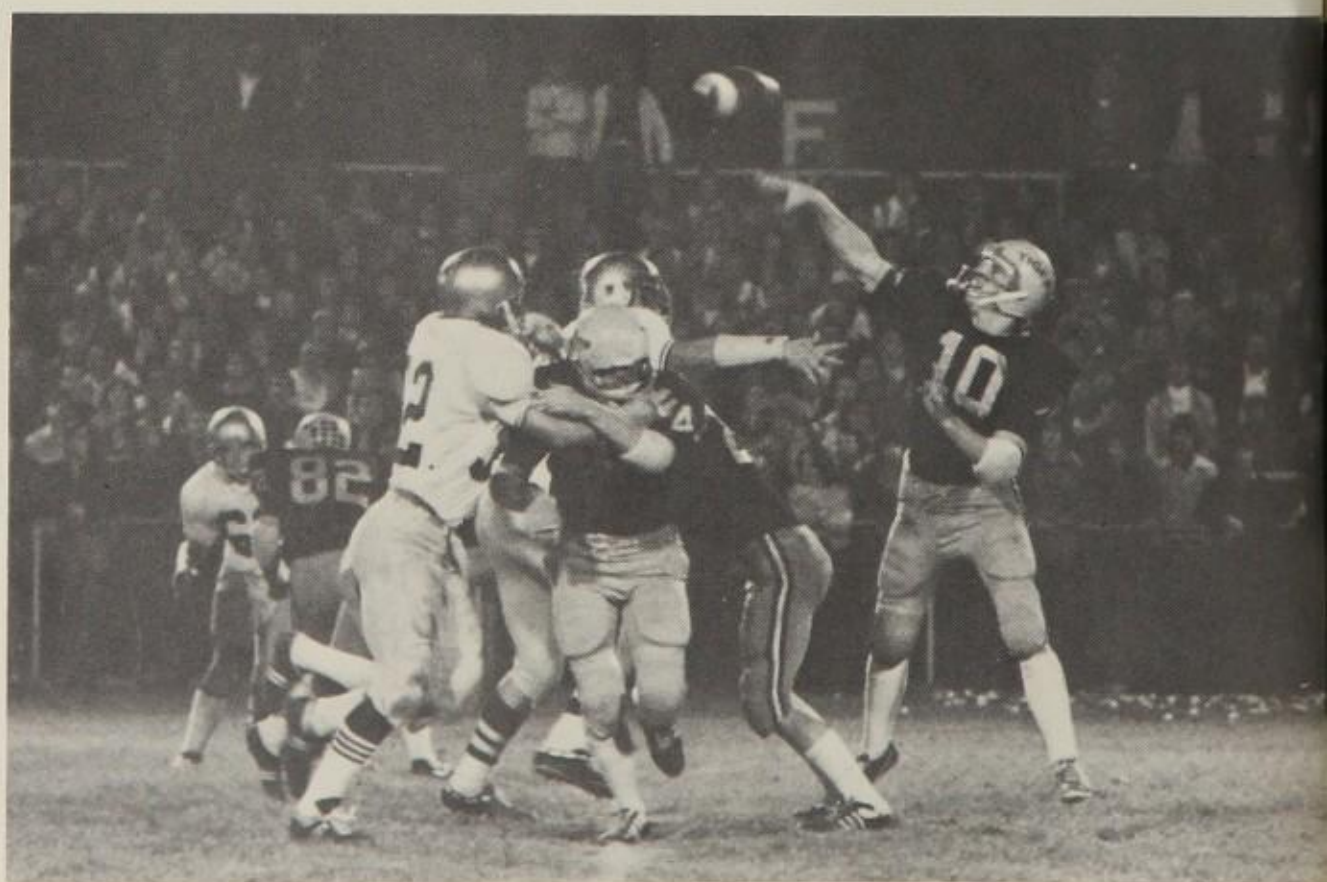

Tom Vicarel contributed to the passing record by snaring 23 for 342 yds. in his career.

One of the most prolific scorers and ground gainers for Cuyahoga Falls ever was Gary Hoover. He had 76 points and 469 yds. His career totals are 156 points and 1,068 yds.

Returning next year, Tom Froelich, was fifth in the NEO scoring, and seventh in rushing with 531 yds. in 89 carries.

Fullback Jon Takacs, carried 80 times for 270 yds. He also averaged 36.1 yds. for 59 punts during his career, while he kicked 15 extra points and two field goals.

Paul Shullo, defensive captain, who played both ways all season, was named NEO defensive player of the week following the Barberton game for six solo tackles and seven assists.

American musical heritage: Featured theme in '74

Tiger Band began their season of American Musical Heritage with a midsummer's performance at the Hall of Fame football game in Canton. The "Pride" featured a wide variety of American music including a medley of Broadway hits, a spiritual, "Rocka My Soul," a modern Chicago number, "I've Been Searchin'," a golden oldie, "Alexander's Ragtime Band" and closed with the finale from the New World Symphony.

Audiences were dazzled throughout Ohio by halftime shows at a Cleveland Browns game and a show in Cambridge. Performances at home included the Tiger Band Preview in August, the Civitan Band Show and football games.

One special pre-game was a spectacle of colors with the junior high bands joining in a medley of patriotic songs, "This Land" and the National Anthem.

'74: a year for Canada and awards

Labor Day weekend was the time for the band's annual trip. Toronto, Canada was their destination. Highlights of the trip were marching at a Toronto Argonauts football game and visiting the Toronto Science Center. Topping off the trip was opening day of school just three hours after arriving home.

The Awards for the 1974 season were for Best training squad in the spring; B. Frazier, K. Foust, J. Chesire, trained by K. Tuma; Best New Girl: N. Rouse, Best New Boy: B. Benora; Most Improved Squad: L. Brubaker, C. Mandi, B. Lope-man, G. Eckert; Best Girl: C. Gordon and Best Majorette: B. Waldron. For the first time there was a deadlock for best boy so the award went to J. Taylor and J. Haught. The banquet was held on Nov. 18th at 6:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. The evening of food, awards, movies and fun was enjoyed by all in attendance and was a great conclusion to a "top" year for the Internationally famous Falls Tiger Band.

Volleyball splits season

Finishing the season with a 5-5 record, the girls' interscholastic volleyball team, coached by Mrs. Koeppel, surpassed last years' record of 2-10. This years' team improved their overall skill by their dedication, and improvement through clinics. They worked together as a team and no one individual stands out above the rest. Rosie Schaeffer had the most points for the season with 57.

Sudden death — penalty kicks — Overtime — precede state loss

Finishing a rough season, the soccer team, coached by Mr. Keyser, recorded a 4-7 season. Leading scorer for the Tigers was Dave Kageorge.

In their first tournament game against Gilmore Academy, the Tigers went 4, 18 minute quarters without a score from either team. It was a great defensive battle. The teams then played two, 7 minute overtime periods, but the score remained 0-0. Next, they went into a sudden death with still no one scoring. With this occurring, both teams selected five men to shoot penalty kicks. Gilmore shot 2 of 5, while only 1 of 5 was shot for Falls, by Tom Shemory. The final score was 1-2, in favor of Gilmore.

This was the first year that soccer has hosted a state championship.

6. Mrs. Auker looks somewhat perplexed by her first year as co-advisor to the tiger backers.

7. Rolls of crepe paper fly by Jennifer Conn as she speculates as to what color cellophane to use.

Decorating for the Fall Homecoming Dance was a tough job for the Falls High Tigerbackers. November 9 was a hard day for the group, led by Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Auker, because they started decorating at 8:30 Saturday morning and worked up to the time of the actual dance which was held at 8:00 p.m. that evening. The Tigerbackers decorated the gym to match the theme of the dance, which was "Over the Rainbow." The majority of the day was spent carefully covering the cafeteria tables with white paper. Centerpieces were made to give the tables that personal touch. Streams of crepe paper were arranged adding to the rainbow effect.

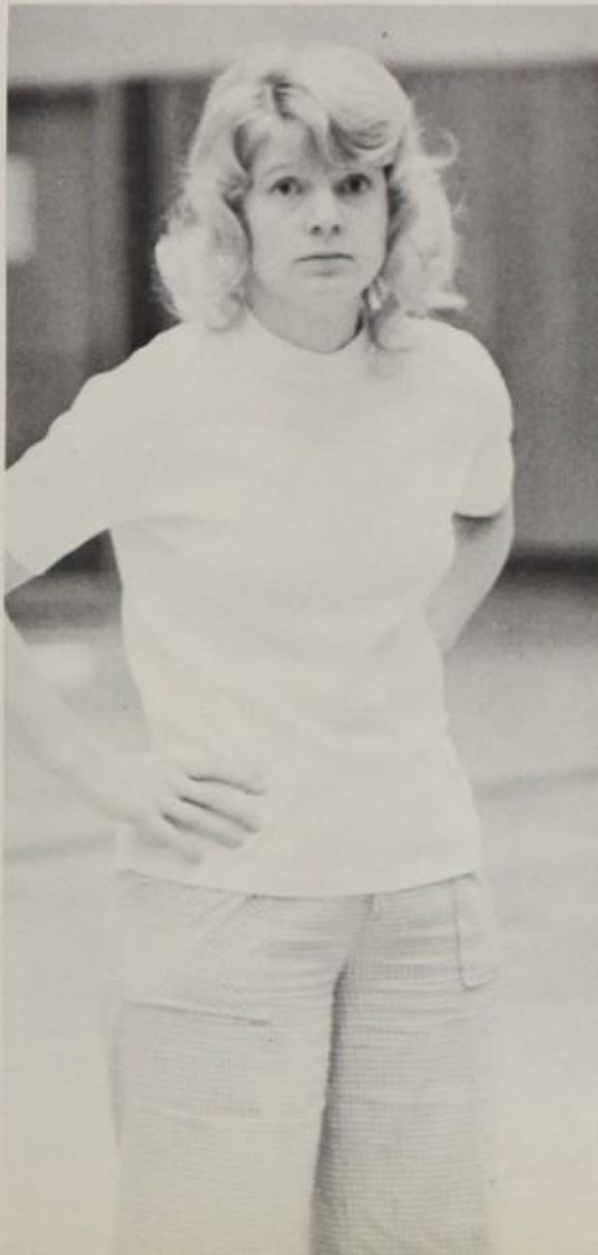

This year more boys helped to decorate the gym while the camera-shy girls with their hair in rollers and their "grubs" on spent the day dodging the photographers. You would never have recognized them at the dance. Even though decorating was a tough job for the Tigerbackers it proved to be all sorts of fun.

Over the rainbow

All of us look for "a pot of gold" in our KALEIDOSCOPE of life. The guests at the 1974 Fall Homecoming Dance found theirs "over the rainbow." Since it was a chilly night, the couples hurried across the parking lot into the building where they were greeted by a warm gymnasium laced with soft pastel colors. A rainbow was suspended over the dance floor and provided a "somewhere" for over 200 couples and the reigning court.

The Falls Sports Dance Court is representative of sports and activities peculiar to the Fall such as: band, majorettes, volleyball, cheerleaders, tiger backers, F.C.A., golf, cross country, water polo, and soccer.

Dancing lasted from 8:00 until 11:30 on November 9th with the group Windfall providing both fast and slow music for those who attended which included faculty members. This year's King and Queen was Debi Waldron and Bob Maxwell. While the dance was in progress Carmen Studios took color pictures of the couples. A brick wall was used for the background and the couples stood under an arbor of flowers.

1. Jay Taylor and Debi Waldron are introduced as members of the homecoming court.
2. Relaxing and listening to the band are Terry Belden and his date.
3. Two band members of Windfall.
4. King and Queen dance "their dance" of the evening.
5. Remainder of the court joins in on the King and Queen dance.

Linksmen qualify for state finals — a first in school's history

Ending with an even 9-9 season, the golf team, coached by Mr. Costill, went to the state finals, which was a first in the history of Cuyahoga Falls High School. Although the beginning of the season started slow, the team refused to give up. They topped off their season by winning a sudden death play off with Ravenna to go to district, and another sudden death playoff with Shaker Heights to go to the State Finals, where they placed twelfth.

966 see "Don't Drink the Water"

"Don't Drink the Water," this year's Fall play which was sponsored by the English department, was a smashing success. Held on the nights of November 15 and 16, it drew 966 spectators which is a higher attendance than last year. Mrs. Lingo was the director of the play which lasted from 8:00 to 10:00. With 18 cast members not including a rabbit and a dove, they rehearsed continuously for eight weeks working as late as 8:00 during the week before the performances.

Also involved in this year's play was Mrs. Gardner who was responsible for publicity and Miss Murray who hunted for the costumes. Miss Davis handled distribution of the tickets to teachers and students alike. A cast party was held for the people involved in the play following the last performance on Saturday night.

Grips provide the sets for all the dramatic and musical plays, professional entertainers, assemblies, and all other activities taking place in the auditorium. In addition to the eight members of the production staff 60 other students participate. Due to the rising cost in inflation many alterations had to be made. Paneling was used to build the sets instead of muslin, and stage props had to be borrowed. Sound reinforcement system was installed in memoriam to Mr. Ennis Walker.

The '74-75 Production staff is composed of the heads of the stage crews: Lighting — Jeff Finan; Properties — Patti Bump; Make-up — Adrienne Greer; Stage Managers — Bob VanAntwerp and John Guyer; House Management — Carol Koch; Costumes — Tom Brunner.

Water polo team places 4th in state

Captained by Tom Nabors and Scott Wachter, the Water Polo team splashed to a 6-5 season. Mark Sullivan and Ken Denison were named the most valuable players, with Randy Raines as the most improved member.

This is the first year that Water Polo has been a varsity sport. In the invitational State Tournament, the team placed fourth.

First blood bath nets 183 pints

Blood, tea, dances, banquet, forum, and legs, are the key words in the 1974-75 student council program. The student council certainly proved its abilities by their many accomplishments such as: providing the school campus with new picnic tables, giving needy families toys at Christmas, and the coat check at basketball games. They also sponsored the Red Cross Bloodmobile, which collected 183 pints of blood when it was here in December. The pep assembly, which was the first one in three years, and the annual Twirp Dance proved to be two more of the councils great accomplishments. They also gave a hand in aiding school spirit by collecting money through the legs contest and providing buses to the Warren game. The Student Council had an annual picnic at the end of the year at Virginia Kendall Park. This year's Student Council consists of approximately 35 hard working members who are under the leadership of Mr. Hupp.

Cross country boasts fifteenth winning season

Most sports have their ups and downs, but, cross country, after completing its sixteenth season under Mr. Hank Pozarski, has recorded their fifteenth winning season. In regular season competition, their record is sixteen wins and only six losses.

With only two lettermen graduating, and eight returning next year, coach Pozarski should feel optimistic about the 1975 season.

Teammates earning letters are: Scott Dotterer, Jim Christ, Bernie Rencevicz, Glenn Warnick, Felix Carver, John Learner, Jeff Sprague, and Kirk Williams.

Zenith of season is win over Youngstown

With only two returning starters, the Black Tigers opened the 1974-75 season. They also faced one of the most difficult schedules in the area. This challenge was faced by 7 seniors, 4 juniors, and 2 sophomores. Co-Captains Bob Hurst and Jeff Johnson led the Tigers into this year's campaign. The season was one of peaks and valleys for the Tigers. The early season found the Tigers losing close games to Akron Central-Hower and Lorain Southview (NEO Champs). This was followed by a come from behind victory over state power Youngstown Boardman 60-58. State ranked Canton McKinley was taken to the wire before overcoming the Tigers 51-44. The scoring of Bob Hurst and the rebounding of Scott Fraser were the mainstays of the Tigers. Sophomore Bill Bennett won the center position and played well there. He had the difficult assignment of handling some of the better inside men in the area.

Fraser leads Tiger rebounding

Sophomore Doug Lane came off the bench on a number of occasions to spark the Tigers. His last second lay-up won an overtime game against Canton Lehman and his foul shot with 10 seconds to play gave the Tigers a Sectional victory over Copley. The guard position was split between Ken Kerek, Jeff Johnson and Bill Fishback. Brian Lawhead came off the bench on a few occasions to help the Tigers. The highlight of the season was the victory over Youngstown South. The Tigers played very well in winning 77-61. This was only the second loss by Youngstown as they went on to regional play later in the year. The Tigers played a strong 1st half to No. 1 ranked Barberton before losing. Improved play of Scott Fraser both in scoring and rebounding was the best individual development of the season. Scott led the Tigers in rebounding, finished second in scoring, and was named to the All-NEO team.

Vespers sets Christmas Mood

2.

Sunday, Dec. 15th was the annual Christmas Vespers. Under the direction of Mr. Ulrich, the a capella choir and M&M's performed both popular and classical Christmas music. The 4 o'clock candlelight service began traditionally with "Adestes Fideles." Other selections included "Do You Hear What I Hear," "All Breathing Life," "Admirale Commecium" and "Fum, Fum, Fum." Silent Night closed the hour long program. The music left the audience in the Christmas Spirit of warmth, love and peace for all mankind.

Xmas for kids and adults alike

James Thurber's "Unicorn in the Garden" provided the basis for the 1975 Christmas assembly. This year's assembly was unique in that it did away with the religious aspect of Christmas and turned it toward the secular. It was held on December 20 and featured "the three flying elves" better known around here as Ed Palone, Tom Brunner, and Sharon DeSantis. A short skit was also included in the program with Adrian Greer and Dave Lash as the main characters. While the Melodymen and Meldodettes provided us with various Christmas Carols, Miss Murray both wrote and narrated this year's assembly which took approximately twelve hours in preparation.

Once again the Teachers' Tea was sponsored by the Student Council and held on December 19th.

Urbie Green is symphonic guest

1975 was a KALEIDOSCOPE year with more solos, vocals, and variety than ever before. Symphonic band had one of the busiest years in their history. The season included trips to Lakewood and Aurora. Joining the band for a March concert was trombonist Urbie Green, who also performed with Goldtones. At the same concert, between acts, Karla McClenny entertained the audience with three numbers.

The winter concert featured members of the band, solo. Bruce Costarella sang "The Shadow of Your Smile" and Sue Martz was featured in "Concertino."

"1812 Overture" was the feature number of the year. Performed excellently by the talented members of the symphonic band and directed by Mr. Corbissero, the overture thrilled the audiences and brought them to their feet.

Alarm brings "standing ovation"

Concert Band I, directed by Mr. Youtz, presented programs of variety in 1975. Music included tunes like "Seventy-six Trombones" and "Meditation and Festiva." A trip to Wooster and a visit from Lakewood were highlights of the season. An added thrill was providing the music for the opening of the Ackerman freeway.

Mr. Feldbush, director of Concert II, provided the audience with a treat when he played "Alto Mood" on the sax, accompanied by symphonic band. A surprise soloist was a false fire alarm. Settled into their seats again, the audience heard the finish of "Flourish for a Wind Band." Concert Band II also performed for the district girls' gymnastics meet. Both bands presented winter and spring concerts.

6. Tenor and baritone saxes, R. Fillmore and C. Clark, help provide depth in the band.

Decorating . . . worth its weight in curlers

2.

The decorating for this year's Winter Homecoming was done by the Tiger-backers. Materials such as crepe paper, colored cellophane, and ribbons decorated the gym and surrounded the mirror ball suspended from the ceiling. Twenty people under the direction of Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Auker worked from 10-4 on the day of the dance, plus spent after school and weekends making centerpieces and name tags.

State workers set up lights and refreshments were served. Altogether expenses came to about $400.00 for materials and the band.

1. In her curlers and jeans, Diane Larabee busily decorates for the Winter Homecoming dance which she will later be attending. 2. At the end of a long day, Gina Sandzone takes a "breather" before going home. 3. Adding the finishing touches includes getting the stage ready for WINDFALL to perform on. 4. The Homecoming Dance that night is worth its weight in curlers during the day.

"Windfall" entertains for Winter sports dance

"Laughter in the Rain" was the theme for this year's Winter Homecoming which was sponsored by Tigerbackers. "Windfall" provided the entertainment for the dance held on February 8, from 8:00 to 11:00 in the gym. A variety of songs was played ranging from Elton John to the Rolling Stones. Midway through the dance 125 couples lined up to watch the King, John Nash, and Queen, Sue Bingham dance the traditional "King and Queen's" dance. This year's court consisted of Sue Bingham: girls gymnastics; Dianne Labbex and Gina Sanzone: tigerbackers; Gale Lovelace and Donna Moore: cheerleaders; Lori Shaw: girl's basketball; Judy O'Karma: girl's swimming; John Nash: boy's swimming; Ed Palone: boy's gymnastics; Scott Frazier and Ken Kerek: basketball; Terry Seikel: wrestling; John Fullerton: baseball; and Mario Chicanelli: tennis.

Wrestlers place 2nd in NEOAC

Coached by Mr. Bilderback, the 1974-75 Wrestling team finished its season with a 5-4-1 dual match record. The team also finished 5th in the Hudson Tournament and 2nd in the NEOAC. This was a step forward after two consecutive losing seasons.

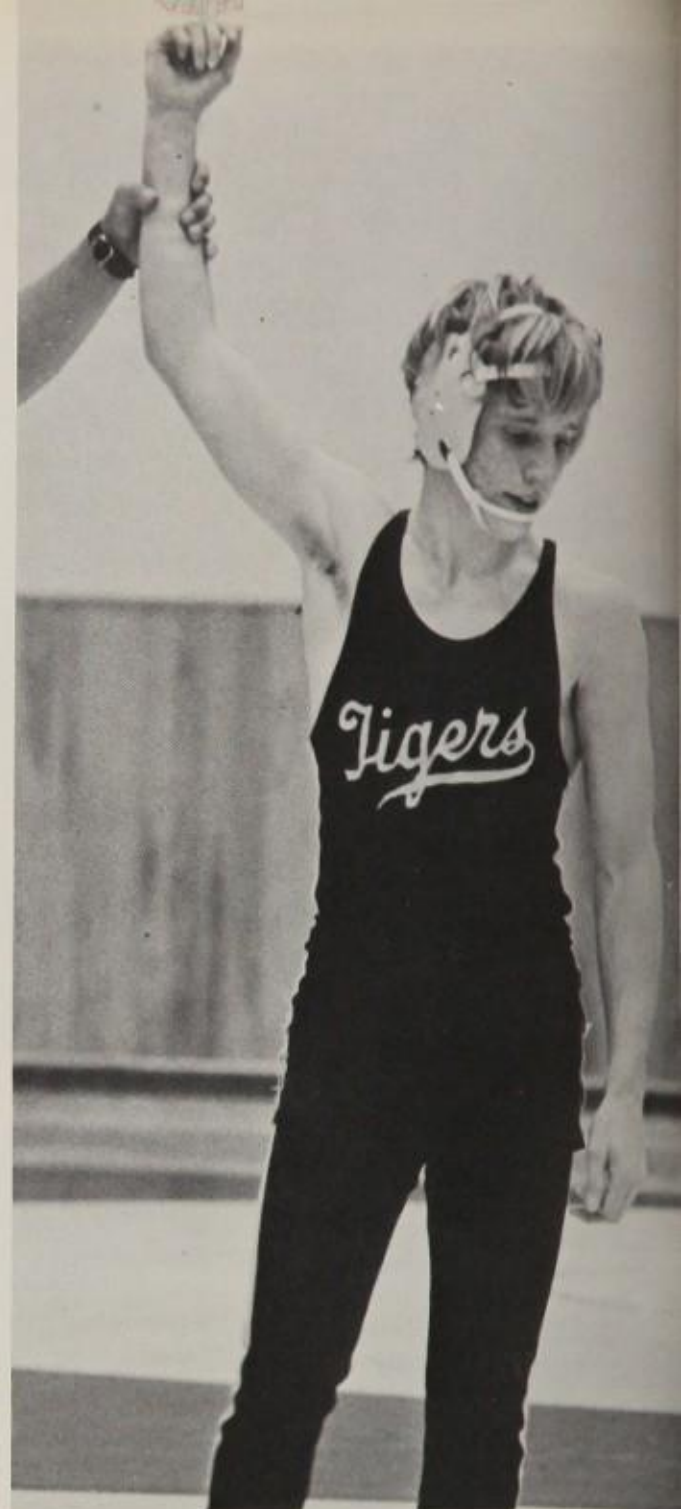

Terry Seikel led all with a 22-2 record while placing 1st in the Hudson, NEOAC, and Sectional tournaments. He also set a school record for the highest points scored in a dual match. Brian Curry captained the team and was 18-4 overall with 2nd place finishes in the Hudson, NEOAC, and the Sectionals.

Eight swimmers qualify for State meet

Ending their 1975 season, the swim team, coached by Mr. Ruess, earned a 7-4 dual meet record. They also brought home the NEO conference championship, and were runner-up champions in the District.

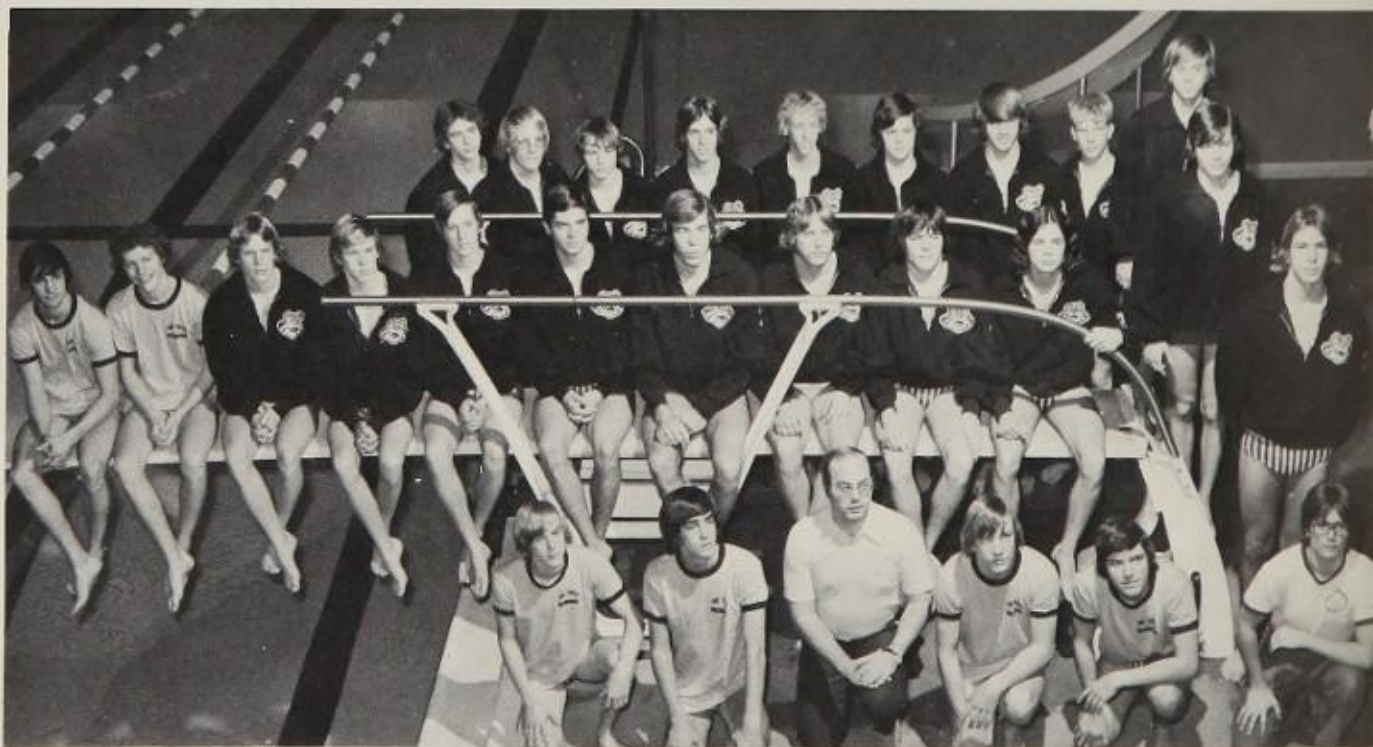

4:20.0 was the new school record set this year in the 400 Free Relay. This team consisted of Ed Burnsed, Mark Sullivan, Scott Wachter, and Joe Weichman.

In both the Firestone and Euclid Relays, the Tigers took third place.

Year of records

Eight new swimming records were broken by this year's girls' swim team. Coached by Mrs. Koeppel, they finished their season with a 9-1-2 record. Those setting records this year were: Mary Kies, 200 Medley Relay, 100 yd. Intermediate, and 100 Breaststroke; Judy Okarma, 200 Medley Relay, 50 yd. Butterfly; Lari Benfield, 100 Freestyle; Liz Bulman, 50 yd. Freestyle.

Losing only to Western Reserve Academy, the Tigers came back later in the year to tie with them. In their three years as a varsity sport, they have lost only two meets, of 37. They haven't lost a meet at home in two years.

In the Neo Invitational, L. Benfield placed 5th in the 200 yd. freestyle; L. Bulman, 6th in 50 yd. freestyle;

Lynn Cary, 6th in diving; M. Kies, 1st in 100 yd. breaststroke, 1st in 100 yd. individual Medley; Judy Okarma, 4th in the 50 yd. Butterfly.

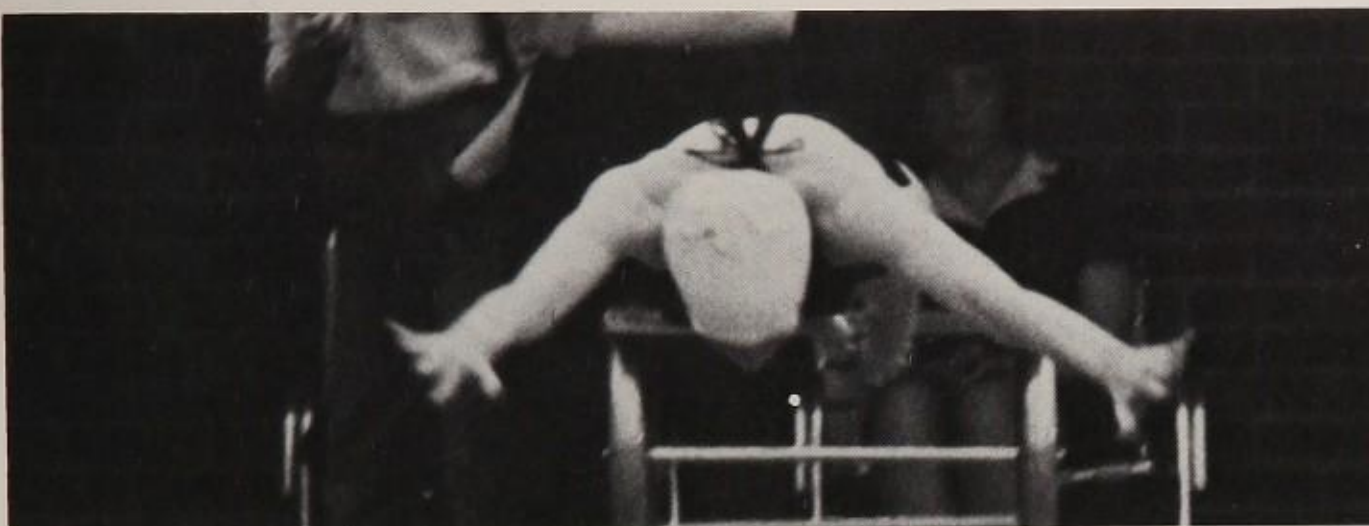

Bringing in the best 200 yd. freestyle relay time of the season were K. Dewitt, L. Bulman, L. Benfield, and M. Kies.

Six seniors leave team to seven rookies

Captained by Kathy Sharp and Laurie Shaw, the girls' basketball team tackled their rough opposition, ending the season with a 8-4 record. Leading scorer was six-foot Linda Wimer with 201 points. Linda was also voted as the most valuable player by her teammates. Although six varsity players will be graduating, seven players will be returning for an even better season next year.

N.F.L. & Tournaments

Falls is one of 2,000 schools in the National Forensic League Program, which is divided into different categories such as debates, dramatic interpretations, humorous interpretations, original oratory, extemporaneous and student congress. Students compete against many different schools including Berea, Copley, Firestone, Wadsworth, and Norton.

All competition with the different schools is held on Saturday. Occasionally they compete in special tournaments which involve topics like Voice of Democracy, manuscript, and poetry readings. This year's N.F.L. consists of fifteen people all of whom had a great interest in public speaking.

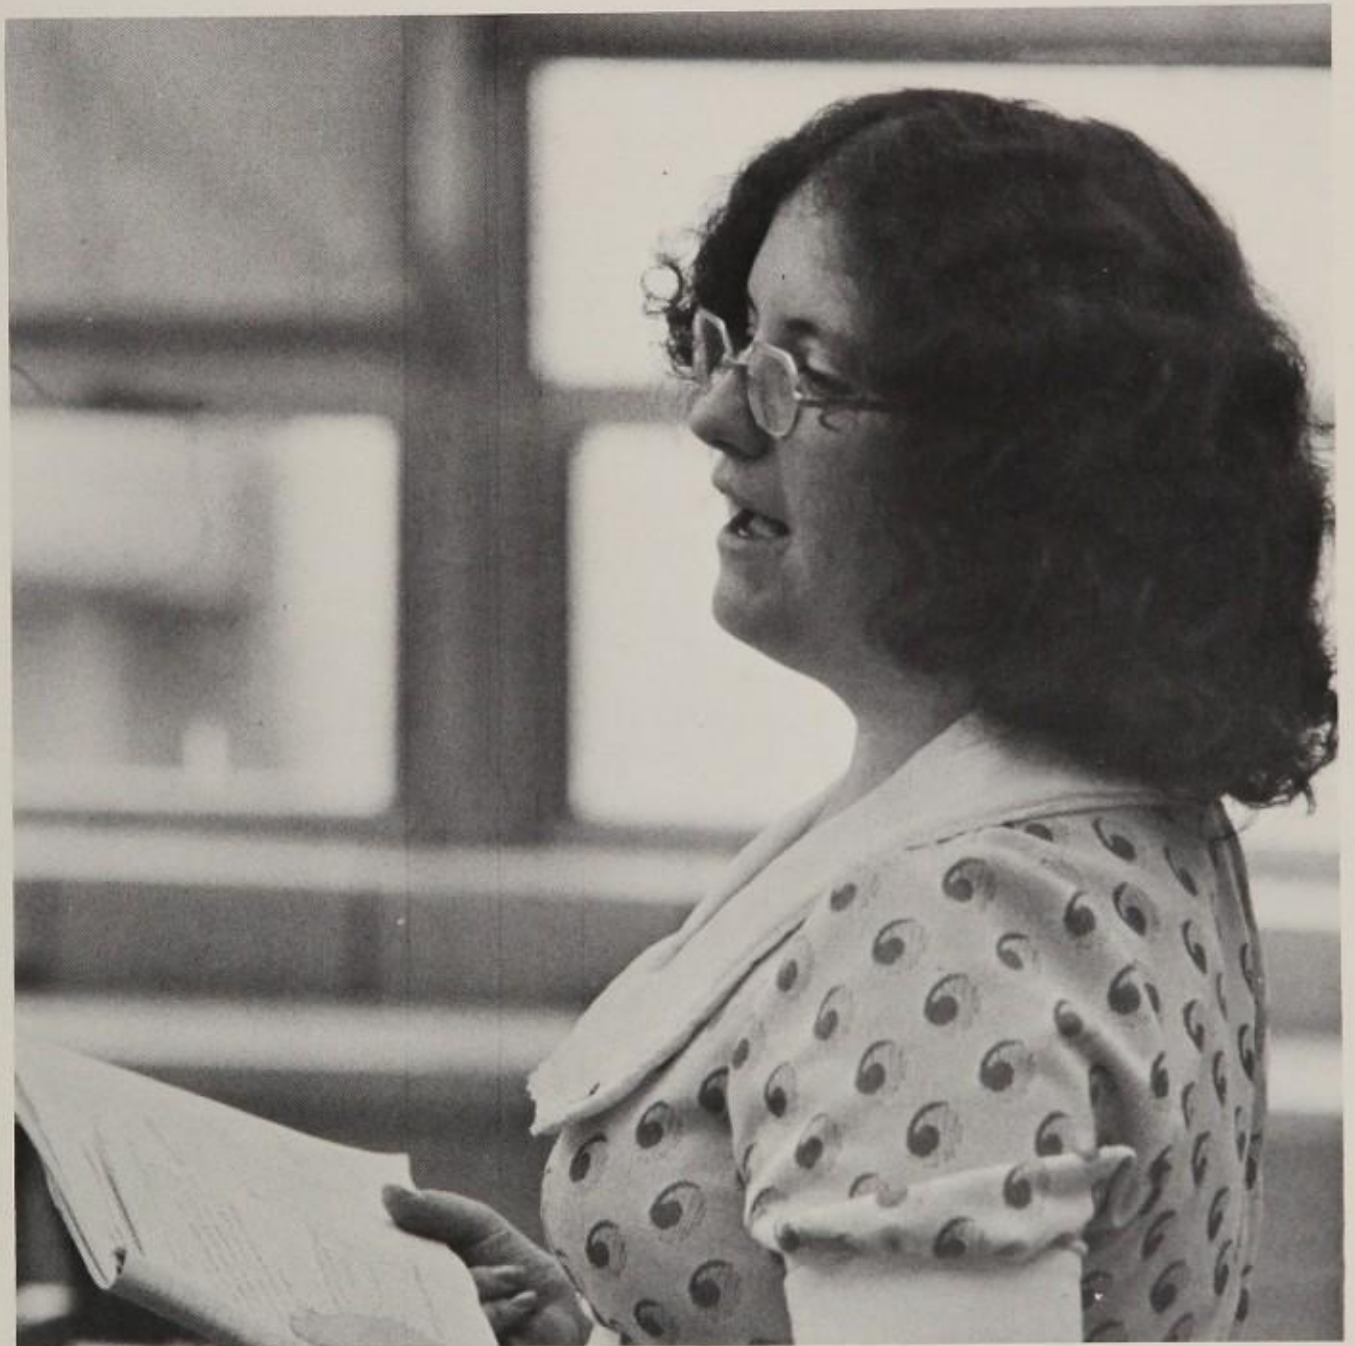

Front Row: B. Athey, A. Greer; Row Two: C. Williams, K. Dieckmann, M. Yeager, C. Runyon, L. Ward.

1. Serving as timekeepers of the debate team are Linda Reese and friend. 2. Cross-examining a member of the St. Ignatius team is Cristie Burrage, a member of the negative team. 3. Presenting his case is Jeff Spicer, also a member of the debate team. 4. Detailing her evidence to support her case is Lauren Wentz.

Expanded coverage for High Notes

1975 is the second year for the publication of HIGHNOTES, the school newspaper. Only this year the paper expanded its coverage to include such things as coming rock concerts and editorial cartoons.

Also, more photographs have been put in this year which are all taken and developed by the students.

The newspaper staff sponsored the dance held on February 28 which served as a money making project. Ads and subscriptions also helped to raise money for the publication of the paper from Copy Cat Printing. The paper is its usual four pages long and comes out every other week fifteen times a year.

Students handle the paper doing their own layouts and designs. The role of editor is switched to the various members of the staff every six weeks so they can obtain a feeling of responsibility.

This year's staff includes: Mrs. Blazewick as the advisor, C. Thompson, L. Perzanowski, J. Warmuth, T. Thomas.

2. Discussing a layout are advisor, Mrs. Blazewick and Jeff Warmuth.
3. A few moments of relaxation is enjoyed by Jeff Warmuth.
4. Deciding on the next issue's layouts is one tedious job Terrel can do without.
5. Concentrating hard in writing the "future book" is student Lisa Perzanowski.

KALEIDOSCOPE theme of 1st yearbook assembly

Top Left: Single handedly, Renee Patterson designs and completes the layouts for all the fine arts activities.

Left: "I have a question," is Jane Yamokoski's by-line as she plunges through the activities section.

Right: Often teased about being tall, Cathy Banfield, fills a tall order by working on the class sections.

YEARBOOK STAFF ONLY

KALEIDOSCOPE, the theme for the 74-75 yearbook is illustrated in 16 pages of color — a first for the Cuyahogan. Also a first was the yearbook assembly presented in October which featured 200 slides, music, dancing, and a light show. Mr. Graham's technical crew joined forces with Miss Reinbolt's yearbook staff to produce the most talked about assembly in years.

In an attempt to make the Cuyahogan a true "year in review," it is set up in chronological order so the reader can see events as they happened. The book was cut by eight pages due to the higher cost of printing and the paper shortage.

Top Right: Before the activities section was in full swing, Julie Jones worked on alphabetizing over 1,000 receipts.

Right: Editor, Kris Nelman, handles the sports section. Her involvement in girls' athletics stands her in good stead.

Bottom: Jane claims to see no evil, Julie to hear no evil and Joan to say no evil. The Cuyahogan staff tries to be objective when writing copy.

True twirps?

This year's annual Twirp Day hit Falls High on Friday, April 14, and lasted an entire school day. No one was a bit surprised to see the various characters such as Mickey Mouse and Frankenstein walking down the school corridors, and visiting all the classrooms. More emphasis was put on make-up this year and all kinds of wild trimmings. It certainly is an experience to be a member of the Falls High Twirps.

Twirps "shoot" teachers

All the Falls High twirps got together on Saturday, March 15, for the big hoe-down. It all started at 8:00 in our own gym and lasted until the clock struck 11:00. Music was provided at the fiesta by "Zacheria" in the setting of Lil' Abner's barnyard. 100 couples participated in fun-packed events such as the chugging contest which left Brian Curry's thirst quenched and a jumping rope contest won by Linda Konic. Other events like sack races and jelly bean guessing games tested the crews physical as well as mental capabilities. Last but certainly not least, the dart contest was a huge success as the player's aimed for their "favorite" teacher's picture.

1. King and Queen Phil Jacobs poses with two of his friends? 2. Testing his speed and coordination at the obstacle course is Tom Shemory. 3. Vickie Abernathy shows everyone her interpretation of what a twirp should look like. 4. The sack race is a test of agility which most of these couples don't have. 5. Also trying her luck on the obstacle course is Sue Stout. 6. Tom Shemory and Meritt Lohr control the dance floor with their interpretation of the twist.

If you think you will lose you are lost, For out in the world we find that Success begins with a fellow, for, "It's all in the State of Mind."

If you think you are outclassed, you are. You've got to think high to rise. You've got to be sure of yourself before you can ever win a prize.

Young team does well in first season

Coached by Mrs. Sandi Horner, the girls' gymnastics team ended their season with a 7-5-1 record. Six gymnasts placed in the sectionals and went to the Districts. They are Sue Bingham on the beam, bars, and floor ex.; Meg Charles, vaulting; Cindy Leitzell, floor ex., vaulting; MaryBeth Trutko, beam, vaulting, bars; Stacy Sheehan, Int. beam; Joyce Sunseri, Int. beam. Cindy Leitzell went on to the State Meet in vaulting. The highest team score was against Liberty when Falls made a total of 78.4 points. Individuals with the highest totals in their events are C. Leitzell with 208.09; S. Bingham with 180.00; M. Trutko with 146.08; J. Sunseri with 139.61; M. Nash with 102.72; and M. Charles with 60.72. With over half of the team returning next year, the prospects for the future are bright.

They came here to be us; Now we are them.

Hand clapping, foot stomping, singing, story telling, and shouts of bargaining rang out over Hale Farm and Homestead on April 28, 29, and 30th. Mrs. Hulick's and Mr. Stitt's American literature classes were no longer sophomores but were actors and actresses portraying the people of two centuries past. They depicted the life styles and customs of our area's first settlers and showed the role of literature in the past. First of the Bicentennial projects, the Hale program introduced 800 sixth graders to American history and folklore. The three-day project, funded largely by a $1,300 mini-grant from the Falls school board, involved more than 1,200 persons including about 190 parent volunteers. There were 85 costumed 10th graders who recited poems and told stories. It was good to see pioneers live once again at Hale Farm.

50's still the rage in "75"

On May 9, at 8:00 p.m., Falls gym looked like any other gym . . . in the 1950's. All the greaser guys and ponytailed chicks piled in to rock to tunes such as: Blue Suede Shoes, and Rock Around the Clock. The group "Monopoly" provided the music while John Nash and Ken Dennison, the emcees, spun the discs of the 50's. Rockin' and Rollin' to the music was not all the dance had in store . . . The rootbeer chugging contest was won by Jay Taylor. The hip-moving contest was won by Charlie Gray. This year's best costume award went to a girl . . . or almost a girl when Mario Cicchinelli showed up as a 50's chic. The night ended as Joan Spalding and Tom Nabors were crowned this year's 1950's king and queen.

"The Empty Sky" Wins a prize

PRISM is Falls High's literary magazine which is written entirely by the students and published by staff members. Students submit their literary pieces to PRISM which includes everything from poems, to short stories to student art work. PRISM staff then screens and proofreads all material submitted and makes the final choice as to what goes in the magazine.

PRISM sponsors an annual writing contest where this year's winner, Bruce Jeppesen won $10 for submitting the winning story, "The Empty Sky."

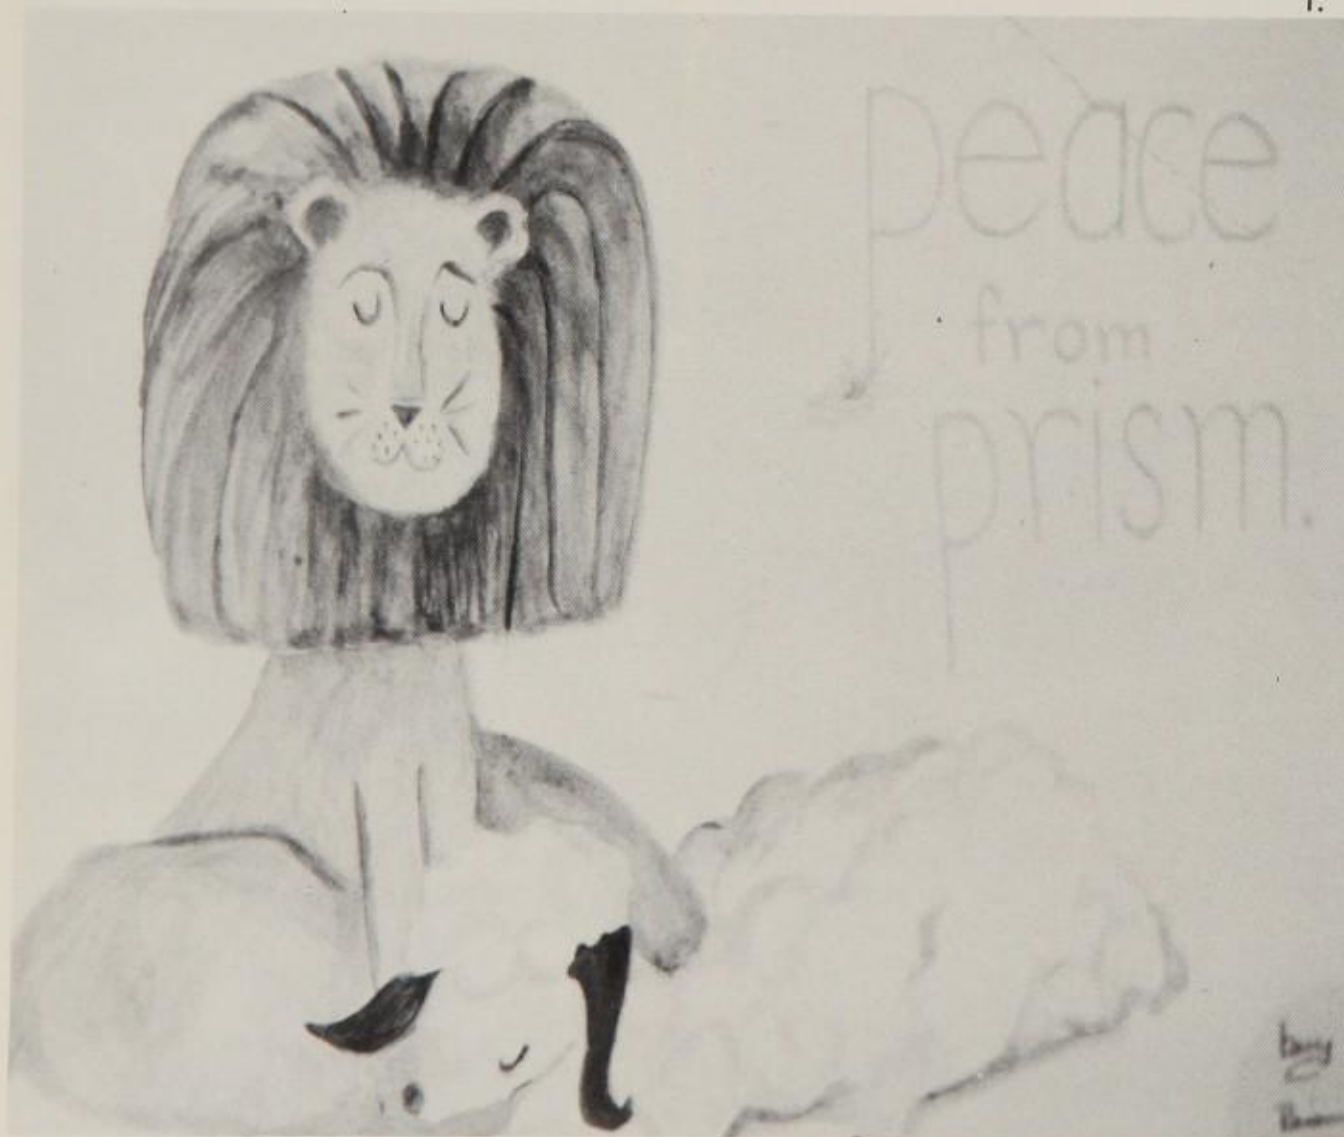

Mrs. Kuruce, PRISM'S advisor leads John McMillan, editor, Shawn Myers, business editor and fifteen staff members into a year of long hard work to publish this magazine which comes out once a year and sells for $1.00.

Shot put relay Wins trophy Sets record

Captained by Scott Dotterer, Terry Metzner, and Frank Barber, the 1975 track team ended their season with a 1-3 dual meet record, and a 1-1 triangular meet record. They also took eighth place in the Hendricks relays, sixth in the Hoban Invitational, eighth in the North Canton Invitational, fourth in the NEO conference, and fourth in the Nordonia Relays. In the sectionals, Jon Takacs placed 1st in the shot put with a throw of 55'1". George Humbert placed 3rd in the pole vault with a height of 12'. In the 880, Tim Spicer came in 5th with a time of 2:01.6. Glen Warnick was 6th in the mile with 4:35.1. The mile relay team consisting of Tom Buck, Bob Bible, Frank Barber, and Tim Spicer, placed 6th with a time of 3:30.9. At the Nordonia Relays, the shot put relay team, consisting of Jon Takacs, Chuck Gough, and Adam Roxburgh, set a new shot put relay record by throwing a combined distance of 148'2 1/2".

Tiger 9 tops districts, But falls in regionals

Coached by Mr. John Anspach, the varsity baseball team ended their 1975 season with a record of 23 wins and 10 losses. Included in this record are their wins in the sectionals over Walsh and Kent Roosevelt, their wins in the districts over Firestone and Wadsworth which took them to the Regional Tournament where they were defeated by Youngstown Chaney. 12 wins and 6 losses was the junior varsity's record this year.

Brian Lawhead, a junior, was recognized as the Team's Batting Champion with a batting average of .398 for the season. Carl Harrison was awarded the Team pitching award and Mike Blin was named the most improved player. Mike Marino, Bill Fishback, Tom Chaboudy, and Brian Lawhead were named to the All Diamond Conference. Co-Captains were Mike Marino and Fred Coad.

Tiger netters bring Back to Falls NEO win

Upsetting Lorain Southview, the Cuyahoga Falls tennis team went out of the 1975 season in winning fashion as they brought back to Falls High the NEO Conference trophy. Having three defending champions on their team, Lorain figured they would win the NEO with little problem. The Tiger netters put an end to that thinking as they won three out of the five finals to win the coveted trophy. Responsible for the Black Tigers victory was Mario Cicchinelli, at 2nd singles, who beat last year's champion from Lorain 6-3, 6-4, Karl Lewis and Mark Trevorow, at 1st doubles, who won in the finals, 6-2, 6-7, 6-2, and the 2nd doubles team of Tom Pozza and Bruce Jeppesen who finished off Lorain's team 6-0, 6-1. The tennis team finished with a 27-7 record, placed first in the NEO conference, finished second in the Ashtabula Harbor Invitational Tournament, sent two doubles teams into the districts and had a second doubles team end up with the best win-loss record with a total of 32 wins and 2 losses.

Standing room only was available for the "Kiss Me Kate" performances on April 11, and 12. Directors of the production were Miss Susan Murray, drama; Mr. Robert Graham, technical; and Mr. Peter Ulrich, music. John Haught and Abby Puente held the lead roles as Fred Graham and Kate. Dawn McClenny and Mike Yeager played the supporting roles as Bill Calhoun and Lois Lane. Phil Rodriguez and Jay Taylor "stole the show" with the number "Brush Up Your Shakespeare," in their roles as gangsters. Dancers, choreographed by Joyce Keegan Flynn were featured in "Another Opening Another Show" and "Too Darn Hot." Backdrop design and painting for the Padua Square scene was done by Mrs. Crystal Brickner. The backdrop was made from the old act curtain which was repaired, hanged, and finally painted.

Grips make fountain flow

Grips devoted their time to long, hard hours of work needed to build the setting for the Spring musical, "Kiss Me Kate." Following the design pattern by Mr. Graham the Grips constructed four main sets; the dressing rooms of Petruchio and Kate, the Padua scene, the backstage corridor, and the theater alley.

A unique feature this year was the construction of the water fountain which actually worked, needed for the Padua scene, built entirely by the students themselves.

Heading the grips are chairman, Patty Bump; secretary, John Zrelak; and treasurer, Adrienne Greer.

Top hats, tennis shoes Highlight prom attire

On Saturday April 26, 250 couples entered the Kent State Student Union Ballroom for the Junior-Senior Prom. It started at 8:00 with music, everything from rock to polka, provided by Lou Elgart. Dani Brittain and Tom Vicarel were named King and Queen under this year's theme "Just You and Me" while junior crowners chosen were Kim Meadows and Randy Raines.

The ballroom, decorated in the colors of light green, yellow, and pink, held the sights of everything from top hats to tennis shoes.

Carmen Studios were present taking pictures of the couples.

All of the vocal music department joined together on May 2 for the annual Pops Concert. Opening the program was the combined Girls Glee Clubs. Their numbers included three from Rodgers and Hammerstein's "The King and I."

Mixed chorus was revived in 1974-75. Among their selections was a medley from "Fiddler on the Roof," narrated by Rich Williams.

Melody Men and Melodettes opened the second half of the concert with "What Now My Love." They also performed "The Way We Were" and "Proud Mary." Many M&M members were featured later in solos accompanied by A Cappella Choir.

Doing selections from "My Fair Lady" were Dawn McClenny, Phil Rodriguez, Sue Scoville, Daun Sterling, Tim Hamilton and John Haught. Also featured were Mike Yeager and Joe Rinella.

Choir sang "Shadrack," "Clap Yo' Hands" and closed traditionally with "Sentimental Journey" directed by Mr. Ulrich.

1. Singing about his problems with love, John Haught portrays Henry Higgins in "I've Grown Accustomed to Her Face."

2. Phil Rodriguez captivated the audience with his rendition of "With a Little Bit of Luck."

3. Mixed Chorus did selections from "Fiddler on the Roof," narrated by Rich Williams.

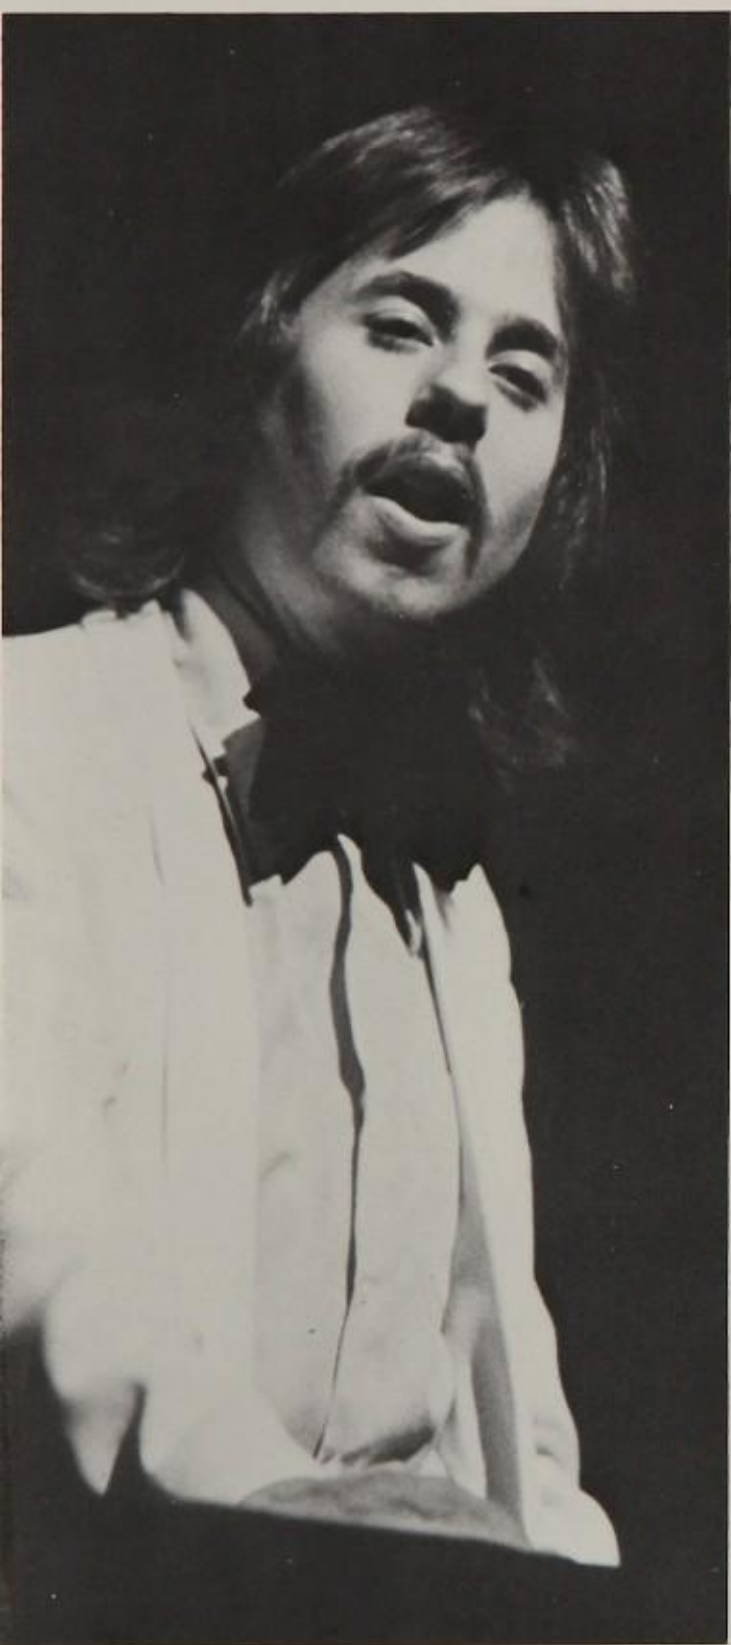

4. "Some People" was performed by junior, Mike Yeager.

Musical Horizons — 1975

Leading the 1975 Musical Horizons program to a success were the Goldtones, directed by Mr. Robert Feldbush. The Goldtones gave two outstanding performances on May 16 and 17 featuring such soloists as: Steve Landrum, Chris Dunn, and John Moore on trumpet; Brian Ewart, Bob Herman, Craig Daniels, and Paul Bezbatchenko on sax; John Haught on trombone; Bill Wiseman on guitar; Bruce Costarella on piano; and Rich Moore on drums.

This year's extravaganza included the majorettes who danced to "Pick Up the Pieces" and "Live and Let Die." The girls' gymnasts added to the enjoyment with a routine to "Rock Encounter."

Some of the selections played by the Goldtones were "Doin' Basie's Thing," "Precious Cargo, Revelation, featuring Rich Moore on drums, "Night and Day" with vocalist Daun Sterling, "16 Tons" featuring vocalist Phil Rodriguez, and "Leroy Brown" with Chris Dunn singing his version.

Montage ends show

Every year, Goldtones end Musical Horizons with a montage. 1975 featured dances from the waltz to "Kung Fu." Featured dancers were Mike Yeager, Karen Walk, Debbie Callahan, Smith, Sue Theune, Deanne Klug, Cheryl White, Jenny Conn, Judy Duplaga, Sue Montgomery.

Waltzing began the journey through the dance years. The dancers then roared through the 20's with the Charleston. Solemn dances that expressed the mood of the depression were the soft shoe, Rhumba, and the Foxtrot. Better times brought the Polka and the Jitterbug. Rock and Roll brought about lively dances to "Rock Around the Clock," and the latest dance craze of the 70's, "Kung Fu." Judy and Mike closed the Montage by dancing to the Musical Horizons theme, "I Won't Cry Anymore."

Mrs. Hart chosen "teacher-of-the-year" by C.F.E.A.

On May 21, 1975, Mrs. Evalee Hart received the C.F.E.A. Merit Award at the Annual Cuyahoga Falls Education Association recognition reception held at Silver Lake Country Club. Mrs. Hart was chosen from all the teachers in the Cuyahoga Falls system to be the recipient of the Merit Award. A versatile woman, Mrs. Hart is certainly admired by many faculty members including Mrs. Shaeffer, a former student and student teacher with Mrs. Hart, who presented the award. Four articles, written by Mrs. Hart, have been published: two in the English Journal, one in Clearing House (in collaboration with another teacher) and one in the Ohio Schools. She was also a consultant for Scott Foresman Publishing Co. on a series of science-fiction books. When the English department received a $200,000.00 federal grant to revamp the English department in 1965, Mrs. Hart was department chairman and she served as the Project Director for two years. She has been teaching in the Falls system for twenty-two years, has her undergraduate degree from Bowling Green and her Master's from Kent State.

Tom Shemory was presented the Pinkerton Manhood Award at senior recognition assembly on Friday, June 6, 1975. Tom met standards for the award by being the only person of the graduating class to finish with a 4.0 average. Besides being a fine academic student, Tom was captain of the soccer team, played intramural basketball, was a member of National Honor Society and some of his writings appeared in this year's Prism.

Kimberlynn Kleason, top female in the 1975 graduation class, received the Womanhood Award. In order to win the award a young lady must have high academic standards and excel in either music, service to student body or club activities. Kim's field was music. She sang in a cappella choir, played flute in band and was in the orchestra for "Oklahoma!" and "Kiss Me Kate." She also received the Arian Award in recognition of her achievement in the field of music.

Self reliance and leadership awards

Melissa Von Moos and Richard Lilley were the recipients of the 1975 Self Reliance award. Presented by the Cuyagoga Falls Jaycees, the Self Reliance award is in recognition of a young man and young woman who have learned to rely upon themselves against unusual difficulties and thereby achieved success in the face of adversity.

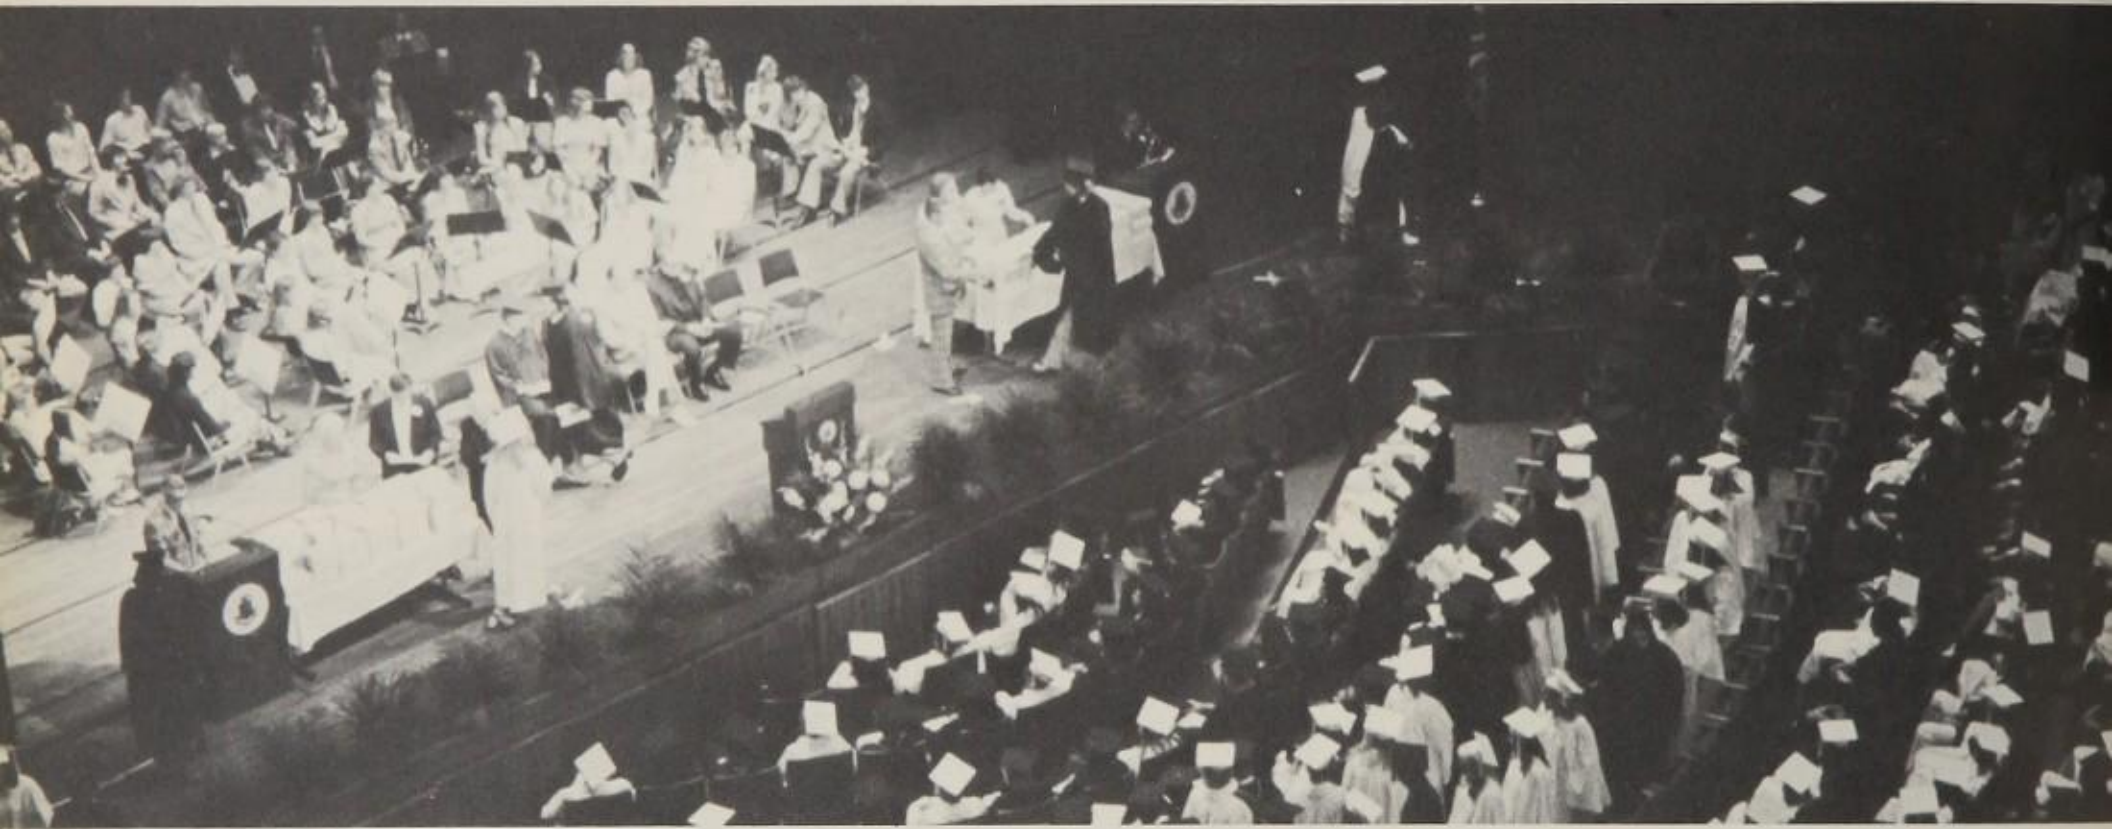

Marian Miles and Jim Bentley both served on Student Council for their three years at Falls High, Jim being president his senior year. Each was a member of National Honor Society and Marian was a member of Y-Teens while Jim participated in Spanish Club. Marian and Jim received the Leadership Award at senior recognition assembly on June 6, 1975.

Assistant superintendent retires after twenty-eight years of service

After 28 years of service as Assistant Superintendent, Mr. John Steinhauer retired with these words, "children and teachers are in my heart and will always be there." Mr. Steinhauer became a legend in the Falls Schools when he often drove to Columbus for government surplus sales. Returning with truckloads of items with no immediate use that were stored away. When the need arose, Mr. Steinhauer would wander into a storeroom and emerge with the needed item at low government prices. He will be missed for many reasons but the more humorous reason would be that he was the only school official to know the location of utility shut off valves in all the schools. There was a public reception honoring Mr. Steinhauer on June 9, 1974 at Lions Park Lodge.

COLOPHON

The 1975 CUYAHOGAN was printed through offset lithography in a volume  $8\frac{1}{2} \times 11$  with 1,070 copies and 264 pages by the Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Texas; David Sachleben, company representative.

Paper stock is special high bulk enamel. Endsheets are 65 pound stock printed in 4 color with double exposure by Joe Stare. Headline format is downstyle, 30 point Optima Bold Italic #67 excluding the advertisement section where the headlines are mixed styles. Print in the introduction is 18 point printed by the exclusive TPC digitizing and pagination system. Introductory poem was written by Miss Susan Murray, member of the English department.

The cover is smyth sewn rounded and backed white #88 with three applied colors: #910, black; #864, blue; #861, blue. The cover design is entirely original, created by Jamie Berger and Cathy Park and the exclusive property of the CUYAHOGAN.

The senior activities blocks are a 50% process black block with a 100% black print. Carmen Studios was the official senior photographer and the activities pictures were taken by Joe Stare and Jim McCourtie of Carmen's. Underclass pictures were taken by Ohio Schools.
